1. Briefly describe any 2 of the following aspects of Jim Braddock's life in the beginning of the BEFORE the Great Depression:

His boxing career / reputation

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Housing & neighbourhood

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Clothing

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
2. What type of work does Braddock do during the Great Depression? Is this consistent work? Explain.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. Give 2 examples from the movie of ways people survived during the Great Depression.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
4. Braddock gets very upset when his wife sends his kids away. Why does she do it and what does he do to get them back?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

5. When Mae (Jim’s wife) goes to visit Joe after he offers Jim another fight, what does she find that surprises her?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
6. How do you feel about the movie in general? Did you like it? Why or Why not? Did it make life during the Great Depression any clearer?